

Reneé Pérez is a highly motivated and mature classical guitarist graduated from at the University of Alberta in guitar performance. He is interested in solo and chamber music. His musical interests also include basso continuo with theorbo and archlute. Reneé has toured Houston in the USA and northern Portugal—specifically the city of Porto and vicinity—as a soloist and chamber musician, and toured, playing the Fasch D minor concerto for guitar and strings with several string quartets and Venezuelan orchestras belonging to “El Sistema”. In 2014, he was featured as an emerging solo artist by the Calgary Classical Guitar Society. Reneé is currently the President of the Edmonton Classical Guitar Society. He is an enthusiastic guitar teacher with ample experience teaching kids and adults of all ages, and he conducts, together with Valentina Benvenuti, the Edmonton Adult Classical Guitar Orchestra.
